HAPPY DOLLARS

Assistant Governor Terry - $5 one for Angie, who always does a great job (from David Grant catering), one for Sue Horton for helping with the vision facilitation at the annual meeting, one for the spectacular dodgeball tournament fundraiser we hosted, one for all of our club's awards, especially for the foundation giving awards, and one for Jim L. who handled all the AV needs at the annual meeting (in Newport).

Jim L.- Thanks to Terry for all the nice things he said. In Newport, there were some nice door prizes. Jim donated his to the raffle at the meeting, so three additional tickets were drawn for those gifts. Thanks to all of those who participated in Read Aloud.

Phil Goodhart- It's great to be here and see everyone this morning.

Scott V- it's great to be back from down south, and for Jim Lang, his sponsor who is really a gift that keeps on giving.

Tom G. - A happy dollar to all of the guests that attended the morning meeting.

Frank M.- One final down, one final to go.

Ray R. - received notification that his son was promoted to Captain in the Marines.

Bob T. - another happy dollar to Jim Lang!

Bruce S./Greg B. - Golf Tournament announcements—we are sold out! And there's a waiting list.

Dr. Phil- Congrats to the Fairfield University women's lacrosse team, they went to the NCAA, but unfortunately lost in the first round by 2 goals.

Preston - A happy dollar to Ron L. who is late!!!

Steve H. - Celebrating his dad's 80th birthday. He attended the BYU dance troupe's performance and it was excellent. It really brought him back to the days he wore tights.

Holly S.D.- Her husband's Birthday! He turned 50!

Jay L. - his son fractured his finger while up to bat at his baseball game the other night, but while at bat he had a hit that drove in 2 runs! He also celebrates 14 years to his high school sweetheart.

Duane - His band is playing for the cocktail hour TODAY at the golf tournament. AND on Saturday, May 23 they will play a free show at 2 p.m. (I missed the location...) ask Duane on Friday morning!

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The Merton House sign up for June-July-August went around.

Steve H. and Michael R. inducted Sal Trombetta and George Wolfe as new members of the club.

Jim Lang and Len Germano presented Phil Goodhart with a Paul Harris Fellowship Medal. They matched his contributions to the Foundation this year. CONGRATS!

THE PROGRAM—Guest Speaker John Savage, a retired production filmmaker who now focuses his energies on making local historical documentaries. The club watched a 30 minute film on the Connecticut history of the American Revolution.
